

The three girls gasped, but they followed the green pixie. Greenly said some sort of spell, and suddenly the girls were whisked away. After a few seconds, they appeared in a completely different world. They looked around at the billions of trees covering the land. Mythical creatures such as unicorns, pegasus, dragons, fairies, and elves were flying around. There were also lots of other animals like mammals, birds, and some reptiles wandering around freely. In front of them were a few guards. Behind the guards was a majestic palace on top of an oak tree.

Greenly whispered something to a guard, “They have to meet heroes defeat save our help..... ,” which were not fully